

The Art of the Neapolitan Nativity The Event Happens Again

Join us and the artists from southern Italy who will build a Neapolitan nativity scene while we are entertained by songs on the mandolin and guitar.

All proceeds will benefit AVSI projects in developing countries

Lebanon: Water and rural development for the farmers of the Lituani River valley - Bethlehem: Supporting a school for 1000 children in the Holy Land - Lima: Education, care and work for 350 families in Peru - Kosovo: Development and formation for small farmers - Northern Uganda: Maternity aide in a Kitgum hospital

The Association of Volunteers in International Service is a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting human growth in developing countries according to Catholic social teaching. It is currently operating in Africa, Latin America, Eastern Europe, and the Middle East.
